GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN]

Political Scrimmage.

St Louis, April 11 —East St Louis to day was the scene of disgraceful proceedings between political factions which is such as has been indulged in for some days past For several years there have been great strife and bad blood between Mayor Bowman and his political friends, and an almost equally strong political party opposed to him regarding the administration of city affairs, and at each recurring election there has been a desperate struggle for the mastery, sometimes resulting in flagrant breaches of the peace and riots Recently an election was held for four aldermen, and there was more than the usual effort by both parties to secure a majority in the council. Mayor Bowman claimed to have been successful, but the seats of two of his friends were contested, and although they obtained certificates of election the other members of the council by persisting in having the right to decide qualifications prevented the council from organizing, and until to-day prevented any legislation There is a metropolitan police in East St Louis and the board of police commissioners are opposed to Mayor Bowman To meet this condition of things, Bowman appointed a large force of deputy city marshals and to-day took forcible possession of the council chamber and evidently intended to carry things with a high hand, for he attempted to prevent anti-Bowman aldermen from entering the chamber A strong force of metropolitans under Commissioner Hinge was on hand in and around the council chamber, however, and a desperate fight occurred. Clubs and billies were freely used and numerous pistols drawn, but none discharged. Many black eyes and bloody noses were the result, but no one, as far as can be learned, was seriously hurt. The anti Bowman aldermen got into the room, peace was restored and the council, consisting of five members, the other four having withdrawn transacted some business.

Colorado Bank.

Denver, April 11.—Later developments go conclusively to show that the first national bank of Colorado Springs will not be wrecked by the malversation of McIntyre the absconded vice president A new set of officials have been chosen for this bank and its affairs are believed to be on a secure footing. No clue to McIntyre's movements has been obtained, but it is supposed he has gone to Europe.

Suicide.

Omaha, April 11.—H. D Johnson, clerk in the general office of the B & M railroad in this city, this afternoon shot himself in the region of the heart, the ball passing through his body, inflicting a wound which will prove fatal in a few hours. He was a handsome young man, considerable of a beau, and put on style on a salary of $50 per month, and consequently ran into debt which is the cause, as stated by himself, for the deed He is the nephew of A. N. Dennison, of Boston treasurer of the B. & M. R. R Co

New York Gold and Stock Markets.

New York, April 12.—The full effects of the negotiation yesterday by the secretary of the treasury of the contract by which $50 000,000 was secured to the government by next January were observed in the markets this morning. The currency price of gold was down to 100¼. The stock market was buoyant and the good influence extended to various classes. The Express says the stock exchange views the matter in the light of affairs, as it will have a tendency to bring gold down to par, and thus convert [illegible] or $200,000,000 of paper [illegible]

[illegible], April 11.—A fire destroyed six [illegible] seven thousand barrels [illegible] docks owned by Eddy [illegible] four million feet of lumber, [illegible] and six thousand barrels [illegible] H M Bradley & Co [illegible] residences, were destroyed [illegible] estimated the loss is $300 000 [illegible] not obtainable. The fire originated [illegible] passing tug.

Illinois Democratic Platform.

The platform expresses confidence in the people, opposes sumptuary legislation, demands reduction of taxes, tariff for revenue only, graduated income tax, taxation of [illegible] bonds by states, counties [illegible], immediate repeal of the resumption act; no distinction between gold and silver [illegible] further low interest bonds [illegible] subsidies; repeal of the bankrupt law [illegible] jurisdiction of the federal courts [illegible] of convict labor. An additional resolution was adopted attacking the title of the president and denouncing the means by which he was placed in the White House.

The Kehoe Case.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 12.—The board of pardons having informed the governor of its action in the Kehoe case, the warrant for the execution has been recalled pending final decision of the board.

Gubernatorial Installment

Yankton, D T, April 12.—Wm C Howard of Michigan, was to-day installed, Governor Pennington giving the office in a neat speech [illegible]

Postal Commissioner's Work

Philadelphia, April 12.—The United States postal commissioner who left here about [illegible] endeavor to induce the South American governments to adopt the provisions of the postal union announces [illegible] the governments of Peru [illegible] their adhesion to the [illegible]

WASHINGTON CITY.

New Rules for Army Officers.

Washington, April 11.—The bill introduced by Senator Butler to day to fix and regulate the status of the brevet rank in the U S army provides that hereafter there shall be no distinction, except as to grade and rank, between brevet commissions in the regular and volunteer forces conferred upon officers of the army now in active service or on the retired list for gallant, distinguished meritorious or faithful service. The bill proposes to repeal section 1 212 of the revised statutes and also explicitly provides that section 1,226 shall be construed as to confer the same privileges upon officers of the regular army as were conferred by it upon officers of volunteers.

A New Public Lands Bill

Washington, April 11.—Plumb [illegible] of the senate committee on public lands to day reported a substitute for two bills heretofore introduced by Senators P[illegible] for the relief of settlers [illegible] within railroad grants but all [illegible] outside of the double minimum [illegible] reason of changes of route, etc [illegible] bill provides that every pre-emptor [illegible] or his widow or children if still in possession of the land, shall be entitled [illegible] the difference between the price paid and [illegible] government minimum price of said land [illegible] provided [illegible] would of [illegible] application for payment [illegible] at the minimum rate of $1 [illegible] per acre The bill also allows homestead settlers who have [illegible] entered [illegible] an additional entry [illegible] and [illegible] their widows or orphaned children so elect they may surrender the original entry for cancellation and thereupon be entitled to enter [illegible] acres under the homestead laws elsewhere without payment of additional fees and their residence and cultivation under the original entry shall be credited upon the new or additional entry provided that in every case there shall be at least one year's residence and cultivation required before issuance of patent for second entry The benefits of this act shall not extend to persons who have sold or in any way attempted to alienate the land embraced in their original entries or to any person who has attempted to alienate his rights under the act of 1872 relative to additional homesteads of soldiers and sailors

Luttrell's Chinese Bill

Washington, April 11.—Luttrell's Chinese immigration bill was to day referred by the house committee on education and labor to a sub committee consisting of Willis of Kentucky, Bell of Georgia and Hungerford who have already charge of all other propositions on this subject heretofore introduced in the house The committee have agreed to hear Wigginton on the legal aspects of the question in a few days

A Needed Appointment

Wigginton called on the secretary of the interior to day and urged immediate action in the matter of the appointment of a surveyor general for California He said he did not come to press the claims of any particular candidate, but only to request the prompt selection of somebody as the late surveyor general just before his death had discharged about 150 deputy surveyors and work would be at a standstill until the office was again occupied

Settling the Question of Resumption

Washington, April 11.—The senate finance committee has agreed to dispose of the question of resumption of specie payments Tuesday next

Report on the Elizario Riot

The secretary of war has received the report of the government commission composed of two army officers and a representative of Gov Hubbard of Texas which investigated the causes of the riot over the salt mines on the Texas border last fall The riot grew out of an attempt of the corporation to monopolize certain salt mines Many years before the annexation of Texas the salt lakes were declared free to the public forever by the Mexican government and the corporation had no right to monopolize them and compel citizens to pay for salt as no subsequent legislation had repealed the original Mexican grant They also find that the riot had no international significance as all the persons engaged in it except a very few were residents of Texas

Sailed for Samoa

Washington April 12.—Mamea, Samoan ambassador, took formal leave of the president to day A United States steamer will await the ambassador at Panama and convey him home and make a survey for the purpose of selecting a naval depot ceded under the recent treaty of amity and commerce

Railroad Sinking Fund Bills.

The house committee on Pacific railroads to-day had the Pacific railroad sinking fund subject again under consideration and decided to report to the house, a measure which though not identical with the senate bill does not differ from it materially

At a session of the house judiciary committee to day Senator Thurman's Pacific railroad funding bill was discussed and it was agreed that no objection would be interposed against a motion to take the bill from the speaker's table and bring it before the house for immediate action, but if that was refused a motion would be made to refer the measure to the judiciary committee

Test of Torpedoes.

Washington April 12.—The house committee on naval affairs agreed to report a bill appropriating a quarter of a million dollars for purchasing and testing various torpedoes

Claims against the Government.

The house judiciary committee decided to report adversely on representative Frye's bill referring to the court of claims all claims pending in the several departments

The New Loan

Washington April 12.—Subscriptions to the new loan to day $135 000

Recognition of Diaz

Washington April 12.—No official information is yet received in regard to the recognition by Minister Foster of the Diaz government, but such intelligence is expected

Secretary of State Vallarta of Mexico telegraphs the Mexican representative here Zarcucana, that Minister Foster recognized the Diaz government April 9th and is establishing official relations Zarcucana is made minister to the United States

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

Hopeful of Peace

London April 12.—[illegible] political crisis [illegible] much more hopeful The conviction is that [illegible] is preparing to accept Germany's help [illegible] of the present deadlock [illegible] conditions as well [illegible] meeting of the congress At Vienna Prince Gortschakoff's reply created an impression of Russia's willingness to find an acceptable method for reopening negotiations This moderate spirit is believed to be in a great measure due to the altered tone of the comments of the German French and Italian press and politicians concerning the treaty of San Stefano which point to the probability of Russia instead of England being isolated in case of a rupture

A Russian Journal on the Prospects of Peace

St Petersburg April 11.—The Agence Russe makes the following announcement An active exchange of communications is proceeding under the moderating influence of Germany with a view of arriving at a pacific understanding the natural path to which would be a congress The improved aspect of affairs have developed so as to justify the hope of speedy attainment to a favorable issue if England does not raise further obstacles

Want to be Annexed to Austria

Cattaro, April 11.—Inhabitants of Antivari and its whole neighborhood are unanimous in their desire for annexation to Austria instead of Montenegro

Insurrection Imminent

A rising of the inhabitants of Spezzi is hourly expected Montenegrins have occupied the forts as a precaution

Will Fight for Themselves Only.

London April 11.—A special from Vienna says the porte has asked Austria what would happen if Russia insisted on enforcing the treaty of St Stefano Austria replied that she would protect European interests singlehanded but would protect her own interests most efficiently

A Document Accompanying Gortschakoff's Circular

London April 12.—The Central News publishes a telegram which purports to be the summary of a circular accompanying Prince Gortschakoff's reply to Lord Salisbury but which rather seems to be a reply to Austria's objections The telegram says Prince Gortschakoff endeavors to refute Austria's objections point by point and declares Russia has fully redeemed her promises to Austria even at the risk of alienating the Servians He expresses surprise that Austria has not seized the opportunity to check disorders in Bosnia and Herzegovina either by annexation or by imposing reforms Gortschakoff, in conclusion, suggests a settlement on the basis of a congress by separate agreement between the various powers as to modifications to be introduced into the treaty of Paris and disclaims all responsibility for further complications if the powers refuse to agree to this course

Germany Ready to Help Austria.

The Post publishes the following dispatch from Berlin Germany has not only refused Russia's request to guarantee the neutrality of Austria in the event of war but is further reported to have declared that she is prepared to interfere if any attempt is made to hinder Austria from protecting her interests

German Efforts for Peace

London April 12.—A correspondent at St Petersburg says Notwithstanding the gloomy news of leading Russian newspapers it is believed in official circles that the congress will shortly meet Germany has not abandoned the intention of using her influence in favor of peace

Austria's Views Presented.

A Vienna dispatch states that Austria in a written statement of her views which was sent to St Petersburg not only insisted on the European character of the questions at issue but distinctly rejected the idea of a separate settlement

Relief of Refugees

Volo April 9.—An American ship came here yesterday by order of the U S minister at Athens, in answer to an application of American citizens She will go to Salonica to morrow to embark refugees

Chartering Vessels.

Berlin April 12.—There is active competition between England and Russia in chartering the steamers at German ports Two steamers chartered by Russia have left Hamburg with sealed orders

Confidential Assurance

London April 11.—A Vienna dispatch says Russia's answer to Austria consisted of verbal confidential assurances The correspondent's informant says Austria's position was not such as to involve a question of peace or war The correspondent believes this collapse of all serious opposition on the part of Austria is due to autograph letters from the czar to Emperor Francis Joseph and partly also to the remark made by the U S minister to Russia while in Vienna, that the czar was disposed to make important concessions

A Stupid Hoax.

London April 11.—The alleged circular of Gortschakoff which seems to reply to Austria's objections is probably a stupid hoax of some Paris newspaper

More Consideration.

There seems to be some disposition at St Petersburg to show Roumania more consideration It is announced Gortschakoff meant that the stipulation for the passage of Russian troops through Roumania, not the question of Bessarabia, could not be submitted to the congress

Russo-Servian Relations.

It is also stated that a Russian commission will go to Bucharest to treat with the government Stevtcha Mihailovitch Servian minister, president of the council has resigned in consequence of the vacillating policy of the Servian government

Joint Protest.

It is said Anglo-Austrian influences are now in ascendant at Belgrade and there is a disposition on the part of Servia, Roumania and Montenegro, to make joint remonstrance to the powers against the treaty of San Stefano Apochryphal.

The summary published by the London central press yesterday of the circular accompanying Prince Gortschakoff's reply to Lord Salisbury is apochryphal

Russians Passing through Roumania.

Vienna, April 12.—The Political Correspondence states that the Russian representative at Bucharest is now urging the conclusion of a convention securing the right of passage through Roumania to Russian troops

Return of Turkish Prisoners

Constantinople April 12.—Eight Turkish transports start for Odessa to bring Turkish prisoners

DEATH OF WM M TWEED

Last Hours of the "Boss" "Tilden and Fairchild have killed Me"

New York April 12.—A telegram is received [illegible] Wm M Tweed died in his room in Ludlow street jail at [illegible]

New York April 12.—Wm M Tweed died in Ludlow street jail at 11 50 o'clock to day. He was attended by Dr Carnochan who was with him from an early hour this morning also Luther Dewey his secretary Mr Douglas his son in law and Ed Edelstein [illegible] All hope of his recovery was abandoned soon after 11 when Dr Carnochan announced clogging of the heart and complete nervous exhaustion At the time of his death there was no struggle as he passed away in sleep with his head lying upon his arm His last words to Dr Carnochan were "I have tried to do some good if I have not had good luck I am not afraid to die I believe guardian angels will protect me" The announcement of his death spread rapidly and a crowd of curious people soon assembled outside the jail peering eagerly into the half closed windows Tweed had been dangerously ill for several days His death resulted from a complication of disorders but was caused directly by nervous exhaustion and clogging of the action of the heart He was conscious till within a few moments of his death Under statutes the body of a dead prisoner cannot be removed from the jail until after examination by the coroner

Tweed shortly before his death said to Edelstein a lawyer something with reference to the effect on his health and fortunes of his confinement in jail and mentioning some persons by name exclaimed "They will be satisfied now" No member of his family was in his room when he died although his daughter Mrs Douglas was in adjoining apartments His wife his sons Richard and William M Jr and other relatives are in Europe where they have been for some months His room was sumptuously furnished but his meals had been brought to him from the jail His heart and [illegible] were shown [illegible] his face very thin but the dimension of his figure had not been perceptibly reduced John D Townsend lately Tweed's counsel came to the jail at 1 30 and was present at the inquest

To a reporter Townsend said he had been told by Edelstein that Tweed made the following remarks to him about twenty minutes before his death "Tilden and Fairchild I guess they have killed me at last I have tried hard to do the best I could Lately but they wouldn't let me They will probably be satisfied when I am carried out of here to morrow" At the coroner's inquest a verdict was rendered in accordance with the statements of Drs Cushman and Cochran Dr Cochran certified that death was caused by pericarditis inflammation of the membranes around the heart pneumonia, bronchitis and chronic disease of the kidneys He added although this was not included in the deposition, that death was also caused by the moral shock produced by the constant excitement under which Tweed has been laboring The body will be removed from the jail to the house of Tweed's son in law Mr Douglass in Seventy seventh street

TRIUMPHANT HAYES.

The President and the Republicans—The Quarrel Over.

New York, April 12.—The Herald's Washington special says Republicans generally seem quite delighted to day over the result of their joint Republican caucus last night Some of them say the temper shown against such malcontents as Howe and Sargent was so strong that the president will profit by it and from this time forth there is bound to be a better feeling between Republicans in congress and the executive Those opposed to him had represented that they would be able to pass resolutions in congress denouncing the administration as unworthy of the confidence of the Republican party while it turned out that the only venture in that direction was a resolution from Sargent who leaves public life with this congress which was buried in the committee The caucus also shows all of the talk in the conferences of Republican senators which have been held lately about the general arraignment of the president are to go for nought Such a policy if it was really considered has fallen flat with Howe's speech in the senate and the tirade of Sargent in the caucus The president is also reported to be much pleased with the new turn of affairs He said to an Ohio Republican member to night that he intended to continue to live up to the principles set forth in the Cincinnati platform which he thought would make him a good enough Republican for any member of his party

Hayes in the Ascendency.

Chicago, April 12.—The Inter Ocean's special from Washington says within the last few days a remarkable change has taken place in the attitude of a great majority of congressmen toward the president owing to some mysterious influence and the caucus last night developed it There was nothing of any particular importance said or done but there was the revelation of a kinder feeling toward the president than was supposed to exist, and there were mutual surprises all round at the sentiments expressed The speech of Congressman Williams, of Wisconsin at the caucus was one of the most lengthy in opposition to Mr Sargent's resolutions It was a very correct expression of the general sentiment His remarks surprised people who supposed he was one of the most extreme opponents of the president The substance of them is quite freely quoted to-day He confessed to having been of the most radical in his dissent from the policy but he would not do anything to produce discord or division in the party He considers the president's order regarding office holders in politics unwise, but he thought the resolutions of Sargent asking the president to rescind equally unwise He would be glad to have accomplished what was intended by the resolutions, but he believed it would fail and the breach would be widened by their adoption The general sentiment is—as one senator to day expressed it—"I regret some of Hayes acts as nothing less than criminal, not committed, however I believe with criminal intent, and I have and I will criticize them where criticism will accomplish any good but I am not going to lead or follow in any movement that will lead to a rupture in the party We can stand Hayes much better than we can stand division It is a bad way to prevent or cure family differences by divorce"

Investigation of Telegraph Management.

San Francisco April 12.—The Chronicle this morning publishes a statement that D [illegible] W [illegible] has ordered an investigation into the affairs of that corporation, it being alleged that the secret [illegible] cipher messages from [illegible] has been [illegible] by [illegible] of the company and that officials and [illegible] have largely profited by the information [illegible] It has been [illegible] from the Western Union authorities that for some months past an investigation has been going on which has developed the fact that [illegible] operators have succeeded in deciphering the cipher messages and have used them for their own benefit It appears that a man who is understood to be the Chronicle's informant was one of the most prominent in [illegible] and that to cover up his own tracks he charged other operators with similar breaches of trust He has since been discharged from the services of the Telegraph Co The investigation was in great part instigated by the publication in the Chronicle some time ago of cipher dispatches from Dr Linderman director of the mint to ex Gov Low of the Anglo California bank The investigation has among other things developed the fact that several employes of the Telegraph Co both in this city and elsewhere have received pecuniary gifts from the Chronicle for services the exact nature of which does not at present appear The examination is still progressing and further facts may hereafter be elicited Flooded Mines.

Virginia April 12.—At 9 o'clock this morning the water in the Savage mine had been reduced to within 14 feet of the 2 100 foot level At this point there is an accumulation of boulders weighing from 100 pounds to three or four tons each which will somewhat retard operations The timbers of the incline are also badly smashed and many must be removed and others substituted The pumps might continue to drain the water notwithstanding the obstacles but Col Gillette prefers to repair the incline and make everything safe as he goes While this work is being done the water is merely held a few feet below the pumps working very slowly

New Strike in Ophir.

Low grade quartz was cut into yesterday in crosscut No 4 on the 1 900 foot level of the Ophir mine and the crosscut has since continued in the same material The winze from the same level was down 32 or 33 feet at 1 o clock to day the west side being in the same material for the past two or three days

CONGRESSIONAL.

House.

Washington April 12

The first bill on the calendar was the bill to refund to the college of William and Mary in Virginia for property destroyed during the war

[illegible] who had reported the bill from committee [illegible] gentlemen on the other side who opposed the bill because they thought it would open the door of the treasury to an avalanche of southern claims that this bill established no precedent No like case ever will appear again He thanked the grand old commonwealth of Massachusetts for her words of [illegible] and appealed to the house to lift [illegible] institution from the dust

Loring advocated the appropriation not merely as a legal right but because he was as grateful to the college as he was to his Harvard for her gift to his country and was willing to forget her errors He would set no precedent but called on the country to preserve the ancient landmarks of national greatness

Reed said Loring would at an early day regret those words as he (Reed) did now He affirmed that this peacefully formed bill would be the most dangerous precedent for all southern claims Bills were already pending for $300 000 for college property destroyed Although every member had introduced a financial bill yet one tenth of the bills introduced this session were for southern claims Three hundred and eighty nine are pending to-day, and excluding bills for refunding the cotton tax, they amount to $4 309 000 The southern members were obliged to introduce these to conciliate their constituents He believed it was a miserable close of the magnificent contest of the rebellion to swing half a dozen poor wretches from the gallows, but the southern members who complained of the bloody shirt must expect to hear these things when congress was crowded with such bills He appealed to them to let by gones be by gones

Eden said more claims were pending in the 43d than in the 44th or 45th congress

Townsend said he came to the house intending to exact justice to all parts of the country and he was interested in all He would act for Virginia as for New York and Massachusetts but Massachusetts came not here with an inventory of great men, and presuming on that and although the college of William and Mary graduated Washington Massachusetts produced the Adams Winthrops Wm H Seward and VanBuren but did not the college of William and Mary follow the teachings of Washington when she sent 32 of her 35 teachers into the rebel army and in teaching secession and rebellion thirty years before the war, thus stirring up the hotspurs to four years of misery Did Mason in carrying to Great Britain the message of the confederate states follow Jefferson or Washington and that other Mason who talked of abolition when Virginia was a colony? Because this college forgot her great men she is begging and suppliantly crying for money from those whom she so wished slew That college counted the cost and should take the consequences We were asked to pass the bill because Virginia loved Massachusetts Yes as she once loved Webster caressing him and promising to make him president but when the Virginia spider got the Massachusetts fly into its parlor what good did it do him When Virginia has used the Massachusetts Lorings, Websters and Hoar family she will cast them off The centennial loan was mentioned in this connection but this was on good security and every dollar has been repaid and still Virginia gave only one vote for it and five against including Goode and that one was a carpet bagger (Stowell) whom Goode has taunted in the house with being a Vermonter He would vote for the subsidy for Virginia built ships to protect her cotton manufacturing or to aid her in any honest industry, or to protect her people's happiness

Davis, of North Carolina, asked if he would vote to remove the tobacco tax

Townsend—No A man who won't pay the tax on the tobacco he chews don't deserve to have any Virginia had evidenced a love for Massachusetts when through its representative (Harris) it called for turning Field out of his seat for a Democrat Personally he could not quarrel with the Virginia gentlemanly delegates but they were bred in a political catechism which taught that the chief end of man was to promote Democratic harmony Although Virginia started first and best of all states yet now even New Jersey which God made last of all things with the load of sand left over had worked with her mudsills and the Yankee notions now made at Newark would buy out any Democratic state in the union [Shouts of laughter during his speech and especially in a bit of badinage that occurred between him and Wright of Pennsylvania

On motion of Foster the senate amendments to the general deficiency bill were non concurred in.

On motion of Singleton the senate amendments to the diplomatic appropriation bill were non concurred in

The speaker appointed Singleton Sparks and Hale as conferees on the part of the house on said bill

Luttrell asked to offer a resolution providing that inasmuch as to morrow will be the anniversary of Thos Jefferson's birthday the house set aside that day for consideration of the bill for the erection of a monument over his grave

Dunnell objected Adjourned

THE TERRITORIES

Small Bros, of Walla Walla have bought the steamboat Northwest of Capt Stump paying $20 000 for it The boat will make three round trips a week between Umatilla and Lewiston

Wool growers of Pierce county W T held a meeting the other day at Hillhurst station, and appointed a committee to offer their wool to purchasers in Portland or San Francisco Their clip will be 75 000 pounds

The Palouse Gazette says a mail route from Colfax to Spokane falls, by the way of Union flat to Rock creek and Crab creek is a great necessity There is a thickly settled country and many people are from ten to forty miles from a postoffice

Seattle Tribune The Swinomish farmers are cultivating this year about one third more land than last year, and the increase is all sown in oats and barley A rough estimate of the area thus sown will include 6 000 acres on which the average yield will be 65 bushels to the acre Nearly or quite 400 000 bushels of grain will be raised on that little patch and yet people say that if we only had agricultural resources this country would quickly amount to something

Albany school district has voted a levy of $2,500 for school purposes for the ensuing year

PEACE PROCLAIMED

That amiable stubbornness seems to have given Hayes a final victory It is announced that the malcontents have capitulated They have found it neither pleasant nor profitable to kick against the pricks We are told that Republicans in congress will make no more war upon him The weapon they have been hurling they find is the boomerang and they also find it a weapon liable to produce results as unpleasant as unexpected Objection to the southern policy of the administration has been put forward as the reason for the assaults upon it It has been charged that the withdrawal of the troops from Louisiana and South Carolina was an abandonment of the Republican party in the southern states But no objection was made when Gen Grant withdrew the troops from other states and permitted the Republican party to be suppressed therein The simple fact is that senators and representatives have made war on Hayes because he would not allow them the customary control of patronage He has not always been consistent in this In many cases he has yielded where he ought to have stood firm Unfortunately it cannot be said that he has refused in all cases to yield to solicitation of jobbers in official places but he has refused in instances enough to win their ill will Hence the war made upon him But the movers of it acknowledge defeat Senator Howe was put forward recently to make a new attack It was to be a signal for an assault all along the line Stronger men as Conkling and Blaine were to follow it up But Howe's effort fell so flat that the shrewder leaders hadn't courage to second the poor exploit Now we are told that there will be no more bickering The political atmosphere is serene There is something ludicrous in the gushing style in which peace is announced Of course if there had been any real cause of difference and discontent it couldn't have been removed by mere abandonment of the complaint Proclamation of peace in such way is a confession that there was no real cause of war

In the Labor World Mr Lawson of Salem writes thus At the close of the war in 1865 there was a greenback circulation of nearly two thousand millions of dollars Even the philosophers of the greenback movement draw on their imagination for their facts The official reports of the secretary of the treasury show that on the 31st August 1865 the entire amount of greenback notes and fractional currency outstanding was $459 505 311 51 But Mr Lawson's statement is accurate enough for all the purposes of the greenback party And the public are not so exacting as to expect the philosophers of ideal money to know what they are talking about Greenbacks and fractional currency outstanding at the beginning of the present year amounted to about $375,000,000 so that the extent of contraction since 1865 has been $85 000 000 Mr Lawson puts it at the modest sum of $1 300 000 000 But this is admissible, because he wants to make a strong case The object is to prove that the country has been crushed by a ruinous policy of contraction, and that prosperity can be restored only by bringing the greenback circulation up to two thousand millions Facts are not a necessary ingredient of this argument On the contrary they would be fatal to it

In the senate the other day Edmunds of Vermont while urging the passage of the judiciary committee's bill to compel the Pacific railroad companies to create a sinking fund for payment of the debts to the United States created a great flutter among the senatorial supporters of the companies by pointing to the fact that undue influences were being used to control the action of congress We had a slight notice of this incident in the telegraphic report, but nothing which gave anything like an account of what actually occurred Edmunds plainly stated that an enquiry ought to be instituted to ascertain what senators and representatives had received free passes in the nature of bribes, and how much money and what amount of bonds had been given out in this way during the present session of congress And he stated plainly a fact to which he was a witness himself "I have seen," said he "officers of these companies in this very senate chamber, on the day the bill was to be up distributing their passes with an ostentatious impudence that was amazing Some of the railroad senators pretended to become very indignant about these statements, but after a little bluster wisely dropped the subject

Louis J. Jennings, who became famous in this country as editor of the New York Times is now writing very bright letters from London to the New York World, in the course of which he presents suggestive comments on important events now passing in Europe In his late letters he insists with growing confidence on the certainty of a war between England and Russia He has no faith in an Austrian alliance, and believes that England must go alone into the struggle The opinion is expressed that there is a close understanding between Russia and Germany which will neutralize Austria and that all rumors of German hostility to Russia are merely part of a plan The progress of events seems to justify this view of Germany's position Rumors have frequently been put in circulation that Germany would interpose checks upon Russian aggression in certain contingencies but in every instance the result has only developed what appears to be a cordial understanding between these powers

In several parts of the country the Republican party is about as much infected as the Democratic with greenback fallacies In Illinois the greenback party has fully organized under the name of the National party the designation suggested by the general convention at Toledo some two months ago The greenbackers in that state are so far recruited from the Republican ranks that in their convention at Springfield the other day they nominated for state treasurer the principal officer to be elected next fall the present Republican incumbent who has held the position during two terms The Democrats are now out with their ticket and platform and seem to be better greenbackers than the greenbackers themselves

The Philadelphia Record speaks with [illegible] as eastern papers generally [illegible] Mitchell's persistent [illegible] defeat the Northern Pacific railroad It says the stockholders of the Northern Pacific [illegible]

The New York [illegible] lays app[illegible] pages Each of these numbers contains about seventy columns of advertisements In the issue of March 4th the advertisements numbered 2 644 and that paper's lowest price is forty cents a line for each insertion It is this income that enables Mr Bennett to support an African exploration and an expedition to the North Pole

In the following, three lines [illegible] Tribune hints very strongly [illegible]

Why should the New York T[illegible] (Jay Gould's organ) praise Howe's anti-[illegible] speech Howe is [illegible] on railroads

BRANCH RAILROAD TO McMINNVILLE

The Dayton Sheridan and Grande Ronde Railroad Company by its general agent J Gaston submits the following proposition in the matter of constructing a branch to McMinnville

That if the merchants of McMinnville will pledge all their freight for transportation between Portland and McMinnville to go and come by the railroad via Dayton at rates not to exceed that now charged the same class of freight over the O C railroad between Portland and St Joe and farmers will pledge grain and mill stuffs for transportation from McMinnville to Portland to the amount of say 150 000 bushels of wheat at rates not to exceed one dollar per ton in car loads of eight tons each from McMinnville to Dayton and the county court of Yamhill county shall encourage the construction of said Dayton and Sheridan railroad and its McMinnville branch to the extent of the taxes said Dayton and Grand Ronde Railroad Company would contribute within the first ten years after construction and there shall be no charge for right of way or depot grounds for said McMinnville branch then the said Dayton, Sheridan and Grand Ronde Railroad Company will on or before Sept 1 1878 complete and put in operation its railroad and said branch to McMinnville, and will thereafter forever maintain and keep the same in operation for regular business by all regular trains and will further maintain and keep open for public travel the public bridge across the Yamhill river at McMinnville for the said term of years using the said bridge if need be for its own purposes also The contract to furnish freights above to be in force for one year

A meeting was held at McMinnville on the 5th at which a committee of three H Warren Geo Bangasser and S D Gaunt was appointed to investigate and canvass the proposition of the railroad company The Reporter has the following on the subject

Our enterprising people are fully alive to the situation and some active work has been done during the week Petitions asking the county court for a remission of taxation on the road for ten years are being circulated and almost unanimously signed The proposition between the company and the county is in the form of a contract wherein the company is to erect and maintain certain bridges and in consideration of this the county will relinquish the company from taxation for a term of ten years The arguments offered in favor of the whole thing are

First—It won't take one cent out of any man's pocket

Second—It won't increase any man's taxes one farthing

Third—It will secure 36 miles more railroad in the county within the next 16 months—[illegible] of it within four months and the opening up of new farms and new lands that are now idle

Fourth—It will increase the revenue of the county adding at once to the taxable property all the warehouses new improvements, new farms &c the head of the valley and the increased value of property in that vicinity

Fifth—A proposition that injures no one, but benefits all can have no opposition except from those who ignorantly or mischievously oppose the public good

Sixth—It is in the direction of building up and uniting all the towns of the county and not pulling down or destroying any after the Holliday plan

"Home Rule" in Mississippi

[From the Chicago Tribune]

The south has been clamoring for home rule and boasting of the glorious results that would ensue from it In Mississippi they have home rule and Democratic supremacy What are the results? The governor has announced his inability to enforce the laws and protect citizens from murder and outrage The members of the recent legislature voted themselves $10 50 per diem took their pay for the whole session and so many of them went home that there was not a quorum left and those who remained behind went on passing appropriation bills as if a quorum were in attendance Home rule in Mississippi evidently means mob rule

SUICIDE OF [illegible] TUTTLE.—From the Pacific House [illegible] we clip the following [illegible] Charles H Tuttle a young man well known in Portland About three weeks ago Mr Tuttle came to [illegible] Shortly after his arrival he was attacked with inflammation [illegible] severely [illegible] he was compelled to take his bed [illegible] he remained up to the time of his [illegible] on Saturday afternoon his leg became very painful which caused him to groan [illegible] About 5 o'clock this afternoon Mr Duncan left him alone for a few minutes during which time the unfortunate young man took a Hopkins & Allen No [illegible] revolver from the pocket of a vest that was hanging at the head of his bed placed the muzzle to his left breast and fired the fatal shot Duncan entered the room a few minutes afterwards and found the poor young man breathing his last He immediately informed several persons who were sitting on the front porch that Mr Tuttle was dying and they rushed to his assistance, but assistance was in vain [illegible] Mr Tuttle was born and raised in Oregon His parents reside in Gaston At the time of his death he was 2? years of age With the exception of a short trip to California last summer he has been in Portland for the past ten or twelve years where he has held positions in the mercantile houses of Meyers & Frank C H Woodard Clarke & Henderson and in the Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine agency He was strictly temperate in everything and bore a spotless character He was well and favorably known by nearly all the business men in Portland, and considered worthy of any trust He had been sick a great deal and came to this country for his health Temporary insanity caused by bodily pain must have prompted the fatal deed"

FIRE YESTERDAY MORNING.—The fire at the corner of Washington and Front streets yesterday morning involved a heavy loss, not only to Mr John O Connor but to the owner of the building Mr O Connor's large stock of groceries was very badly damaged by the fire and water combined and the building has also been damaged to a considerable extent The damage sustained by Mr O Connor can hardly fall short of $6 000 He has not taken an account of stock for many years and the loss can not be determined with any degree of certainty He is insured for $5,000 in the State Investment Insurance Company The building—50x100 feet—is owned by Mr Elliott Corbett The damage by fire and water to building is estimated at $5 000 On the first 25 feet Mr Corbett has a policy of $6,000 in the Royal Insurance Company of Liverpool and on the next 25 feet $4 000 in the Phoenix Insurance Company L P W Quimby of the American Exchange Hotel, sustains a loss of about $3 000—damage to furniture and carpets by the water He is insured for $1 000 in the Phoenix Company, of Hartford Mr Friedman who kept a saloon one door south of O Connor's store, was damaged to the extent of about $350 There was no insurance on his stock Dr Paul M Brenan who has an office on the second floor sustained a loss of several hundred dollars The cause of the fire is unknown It caught in the rear portion of the grocery store, among some boxes and barrels There was a lamp suspended from the ceiling about the middle of the grocery, but the fire caught some distance away and could scarcely not have been communicated from it Mr S Farrell and D J Malarkey have been appointed appraisers Mr Barnett has been appointed to represent the insurance company The appraisers are examining the damaged stock and will soon be ready to make their estimate of damages

A NARROW ESCAPE.—Mrs L P W Quimby, who, with her children, occupied rooms on the second floor directly above O'Connor's grocery store at the corner of Front and Washington street had a very narrow escape from suffocation during the fire Friday morning Mr Quimby was not at home having gone east of the mountains some time ago, and Mrs Quimby was not aroused either by the fire alarm or the noise of the engines After the fire had been in progress some little time Tommy Neally happened to think of Mrs Quimby and spoke to a young man named Charlie Sherry about it As no person had been seen to issue from the rooms Neally expressed some fear that the lady and her children might still be in bed Both men ran up the stairway and along the hall, which by that time was filled with suffocating smoke from the burning story below, and after some difficulty entered the room They found Mrs Quimby and her children still in bed The room was filled with smoke and both mother and children seemed stupid from its effects Before Mrs Quimby could be aroused to a sense of danger it was necessary to drag her out of bed At length the mother and two children were taken from the room out into the open air When they reached the sidewalk Mrs Quimby spoke to Sherry and asked where her babe was He ran up stairs and entering the room again found her infant in the bed He carried the child down stairs and restored it to the anxious mother It was with much difficulty that the men could breathe in the hall so dense was the smoke, and had the woman and children remained much longer in the room they would inevitably have perished from suffocation

FIRE PATROL NEEDED.—Seldom does a fire of any significance occur in the city of Portland, in which the expediency of the institution of an efficient fire patrol is not made apparent The two fires during the past week have both been instances in which a saving might have been effected by such an organization that would have gone far toward paying the expenses of a patrol for a whole year The patrol being more rapidly handled than the engine companies would always be on the ground before the firemen and by covering goods when necessary and protecting them from being damaged by water thus saving owners and insurance companies a great deal It is well known that in many of the smaller fires here, and in fact in all cities, a large part of the damage is caused by water and as it is impossible by any management on the part of the fire companies to prevent this, except to let the goods burn, a method of averting this cause of damage as could in a great measure be effected by an efficient fire patrol, ought certainly to be favored by property owners and especially by insurance men An estimate of the probable cost of a patrol of sufficient magnitude for this city has already been published and the question set before the people but so far nothing has been done Mr Joseph Bachman a prominent insurance gentleman goes to San Francisco on the steamer today and we suggest that he lay the subject before the companies having agencies in Portland and we believe he could secure material encouragement from them in the establishment of an efficient organization of the kind in our city

A "WAY UP TIME."—A correspondent writing from St Jo under date of the 11th, furnishes the following facetious account of a surprise party A very pleasant surprise party took place last night at the handsome residence of mine host of the Dunn House Mr Bev Dunn The surprise was given by the railroad boys of this place it being the 60th birthday of Mr Dunn Music furnished by the St Jo Brass Band under the leadership of Prof [illegible] The band was highly spoken of by all and Mr Dunn was carried away by the sweet strains of the base drum Too much cannot be said of the [illegible] band composed of railroad [illegible] Mr [illegible] on the bass [illegible] Mr Sullivan on the [illegible] Mr Be[illegible] snare drum [illegible] to perfect [illegible]

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 13, 1878

CITY.

SUICIDE OF YOUNG TUTTLE.—From the Dalles Gazette is obtained the following additional particulars of the death of Charles H Tuttle, a young man well known in Portland. About three weeks ago Mr Tuttle came to the Dalles for the purpose of clerking for the new firm of Eliot & Andrews. Shortly after his arrival he was attacked with inflammatory rheumatism in the right leg and suffered severely with it. About a week ago his case became so serious that he was compelled to take his bed, where he remained up to the time of his death. On Saturday afternoon his leg became very painful, which caused him to groan and cry almost all the afternoon. About 5:30 o'clock his attendant Mr Duncan left him alone for a few minutes, during which time the unfortunate young man took a Hopkins & Allen No 3 revolver from the pocket of a vest that was hanging at the head of his bed, placed the muzzle to his left breast and fired the fatal shot. Duncan entered the room a few minutes afterwards and found the poor young man breathing his last. He immediately informed several persons who were sitting on the front porch that Mr Tuttle was dying and they rushed to his assistance but assistance was not needed, life was extinct. Mr Tuttle was born and raised in Oregon. His parents reside in Gaston. At the time of his death he was 26 years of age. With the exception of a short trip to California last summer, he has been in Portland for the past ten or twelve years, where he has held positions in the mercantile houses of Meyers & Co., G. H. Woodard, Clarke & Henderson, and in the Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine agency. He was strictly temperate in every thing, and bore a spotless character. He was well and favorably known by nearly all the business men in Portland, and considered worthy of any trust. He had been sick a good deal and came to this country for his health. Temporary insanity caused by bodily pain must have prompted the fatal deed.

THIS MORNING'S MORNING.—The fire at the corner of Washington and Front streets yesterday morning involved a heavy loss not only to Mr. John O'Connor, but to the owner of the building. Mr. O'Connor's large stock of groceries was very badly damaged by the fire and water combined, and the building has also been damaged to a considerable extent. The damage sustained by Mr O'Connor can hardly fall short of $6,000. He has not taken any account of stock for many years and the loss can not be determined with any degree of certainty. He is insured for $5,000 in the State Investment Insurance Company. The building, 50x100 feet—is owned by Mr Eli Corbett. The damage by fire and water to building is estimated at $5 000. On the first 25 feet Mr Corbett has a policy of $6,000 in the Royal Insurance Company of Liverpool, and on the next 25 feet $4 000 in the Phœnix Insurance Company. L P W Quimby, of the American Exchange Hotel suffered a loss of about $3,000—damage to furniture and carpets by the water. He is insured for $1,000 in the Phœnix Company, of Hartford. Mr. Friedman, who kept a saloon just north of O'Connor's store was damaged to the extent of about $350. There was no insurance on his stock. Dr Paul M Brown, who has an office on the second floor, sustained a loss of several hundred dollars. The cause of the fire is unknown. It caught in the rear portion of the grocery store, among some boxes and barrels. There was a lamp suspended from the ceiling about the middle of the grocery, but the fire caught some distance away, and could scarcely not have been communicated from it. Mr S Farwell and D. J. Malarkey have been appointed ... Mr. Barnett has been appointed ... the insurance company. The ... are examining the damaged stock and will soon be ready to make their estimate.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—Mrs. L P W Quimby, with her children, occupied rooms on the second floor directly above O'Connor's grocery store, at the corner of Front and Washington street, had a very narrow escape from suffocation during the fire Friday morning. Mr. Quimby was not at home, he having gone east of the mountains some time ago, and Mrs. Quimby was not aroused either by the alarm or the noise of the engines after the fire had been in progress some little time. Tommy Neally happened to think of the family, and spoke to a young man named Danny about it. As no person was seen to issue from the rooms Neally began to fear that the lady and her children might still be in bed. Both men rushed up the stairway and along the hall, which was filled with suffocating smoke from the grocery below, and after some ... the room. They found Mrs Quimby and her children still in bed ... with smoke and both mother and children seemed stupid from its effects. A FIRE PATROL NEEDED.—Seldom does a fire of ... occur in the city of Portland ... the experience of the institution of ... fire patrol is not made apparent. ... fire during the past week have both ... which a saving might have been effected by such an organization that would have gone far toward paying the expense of a patrol for a whole year. The patrol being more rapidly handled than the engine companies, would always be on the ground before the firemen, and by covering goods when necessary, and protecting them from being damaged by water, thus saving owners and insurance companies a great deal. It is well known that in many of the smaller fires here, and in fact in all cities, a large part of the damage is caused by water and as it is impossible by any management on the part of the fire companies to prevent this, except to let the goods burn, a method of averting this cause of damage, as could in a great measure be effected by an efficient fire patrol, ought certainly to be favored by property owners and especially by insurance men. An estimate of the probable cost of a patrol of sufficient magnitude for this city has already been published, and the question set before the people, but so far, nothing has been done. Mr. Joseph Bachman, a prominent insurance gentleman, goes to San Francisco on the steamer to-day, and we suggest that he lay the subject before the companies having agencies in Portland, and we believe he can secure material encouragement from them for the establishment of an efficient or ... of the kind in our city.

"... THEM."—A correspondent writes from St. Jo, under date of the 11th, for ... the following facetious account of a surprise party: A very pleasant surprise party took place last night at the handsome residence of mine host of the Dunn House Mr Ben. Dunn. The surprise was given by the railroad boys of this place, it being the 46th birthday of Mr Dunn. Music furnished by the St Jo Tin Band, under the leadership of Prof Bell, was highly spoken of by all, and Mr Dunn was carried away by the soft strains of the base drum. Too much cannot be said in favor of this band composed of railroad boys. Mr Connelly on the bass can not be beat. Mr Guess blowed the cymbals to perfection, while Mr Sullivan on the base drum, done all that could be done and Mr. Bennett filled the bill on the snare drum to perfection.

GENEROUS.—Mr E Corbett owner of the property damaged by fire yesterday presented each of the following hose boys of No ... with a pair of pants. Henry and Fat Gr... C C Meal, Geo. Maxwell, Abe Tichner ... Mills; also Julius Goldsmith with a pair of boots. The boys worked hard at the fire.

RUN OVER.—A little girl of Mr W... the tailor was run over by a truck on Washington street near Ninth yesterday and injured internally, quite seriously it is supposed. The child was playing on the truck and fell off, being caught by the brake and ... way severely bruised as stated.

LIFE SAVING SERVICE.—From ... paper it is learned that Capt. J. W. Wh..., who is at present in charge of the life saving service of this coast, arrived Wednesday on the C. B. Elle from San Francisco and ... which north yesterday on the steamer ... are intending to visit Shoalwater and Neah bay stations and placing them in readiness for immediate use. During the past week the Thomas Corwin under command of Capt Brann has landed the outfit and equipments for the life saving station at Cape Disappointment and prepared the life boat for immediate service, a large part of the crew being then employed for five days. The various outfits and equipments were stored in place and put in readiness for immediate use so that with a proper crew in a few minutes the boat can be on her way to perform any humane service required of her. There are two of Merryman's life saving suits at the station and some experiments was made with them. Capt Stephen Davis is at present in charge of the station.

CRICKET.—The Portland Cricket Club held their regular monthly meeting a few evenings ago at the office of Messrs Creighton & Stearns on Front street and resolved to open the playing season by a match on Easter Monday the 22d of this month. The club have secured very pleasant grounds about five minutes walk south of the street car terminus on First street. They have expended considerable money in putting the ground in order and have sent to Victoria for a full cricket outfit. There are nearly forty members on the secretary's role, consisting of some of our best citizens and a number of others are only waiting to see operations actually commenced when they will offer themselves as candidates for membership. Everything bids fair for an active and enjoyable season.

ALIVE AND WELL.—John Bontly, concerning whose alleged sudden and mysterious disappearance frequent mention has of late been made turned up yesterday alive and well. He says he does not remember having had any conversation with Mr Birnie, but has been steadily at work in Portland and East Portland earning an honest living as a day laborer, he having been impoverished by his trial for counterfeiting. Bontly says the trial was a persecution instigated by his personal enemies and that this story of his suicide comes from the same source. Mr Birnie was the individual who came to this office and volunteered the information. Bontly thinks it would be a proper thing for Birnie to rise and explain.

OPEN TEMPERANCE SOCIETY.—Efforts have been made to have the open temperance meeting at the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association this evening a grand success. These meetings are very largely attended, and the exercises never fail to interest the audience. At the meeting this evening besides other interesting exercises Rev Mr Cruzan of the First Congregational church will deliver an address. Miss Allen will give one of her splendid declamations and a quartette of excellent musical artists will sing one or more appropriate pieces. The public are earnestly solicited to attend and give this great work the benefit of their influence. Exercises will commence promptly at half past seven.

DEPOSITION FROM THE MINISTRY.—Yesterday morning in St Paul's church, Oregon City, after the Litany service and penitential prayers, Bishop Morris solemnly deposed the Rev Geo Burton from the ministry in accordance with the canonical requirements of the Protestant Episcopal church declaring it to be unlawful for him, in future, to officiate in any of the offices of the sacred ministry. The bishop has appointed the Rev George P Plummer, rector of Trinity church, to the vacant place in the standing committee.

MEETING OF WORKING MEN.—Last evening a mass meeting of the working men was held at Odd Fellows' hall in East Portland. There was a large attendance and considerable enthusiasm was manifested during the evening. Mr David Cole acted as chairman. Music was furnished by the Portland City Band. Speeches were made by W W Baker, George P Riley, Wm Brown and Prof Chaney. We have this information from Mr. Wm Franklin, whose ardor indicates that he is taking an active and conspicuous part in politics.

WEEKLY OREGONIAN.—The current number of THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN is now ready for sale at the business office, ten cents a copy. It is a most excellent number—filled with interesting telegraphic news from all portions of the world, choice miscellany, editorials on leading topics, state and territorial intelligence, full and complete report of the proceedings of the Democratic state convention, commercial and local news. Buy a copy and send it to your friend in the east.

COURT MARTIAL.—A general court martial convened at Vancouver Thursday, for the trial of such persons as might be brought before it. The following officers composed the court: Capt S P Jocelyn, Capt W F Spurgin, 1st Lieut. J. A. Haughey, 1st Lieut W E Hall, 2d Lieut J W Duncan, 2d Lieut F E. Eltonhead, 2d Lieut. J C Shofner, 1st Lieut. H H Pierce Judge Advocate.

SNOW STORM.—Yesterday afternoon a gentleman of this city, who was out among the hills back of Oswego says that a heavy snow storm overtook him. It lasted for about 30 minutes, the "beautiful snow" descending very rapidly. The whole face of the country was covered with a spotless mantle to the depth of nearly an inch. A snow storm on the 12th of April isn't so very bad.

FINE PHOTOGRAPHS.—In the window of Cone & McKercher, 49 First street, are three elegant photographs, which are very attractive. One is a copy of Toby Rosenthal's celebrated painting "The Seminary Alarmed," a second, "Cleopatra's Barge," and the third "Elaine." They are sold but will be allowed to remain a few days on exhibition.

ANOTHER ENTERTAINMENT.—We understand that the ladies who have supervision over the Orphanage have, in obedience to general request, decided to repeat the entertainment which was a positive success, and will meet shortly to arrange matters. The affair will probably take place before the close of the present month.

LETTER LIST.—The following letters remain uncalled for in Wells Fargo & Co's express office: Solomon Carr, J G Domes, J P Elsenbach, W. F. Healey, S Howard, I Legay, C B Plummer, Miss Ella Smith, Miss Dordia Smith, Jas Sherwood, Miss M E Wadsworth.

U T PRAYER MEETING.—The Christian ladies of Portland will hold a union temperance prayer meeting one hour before the open temperance meeting at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association this (Saturday) evening, April 13.

RETURNED.—Mr Jesse Shepard returned yesterday afternoon from a tour up through the valley. During his absence Mr Shepard visited Corvallis, Eugene City, Albany and Salem. His trip has been very successful.

EPISCOPAL SERVICE.—The Rev T. K. W Sellwood will officiate in St Paul's church Dalles, on Sunday the 14th of April. Dr Nevius is expected to be at the Dalles on Easter.

PRAISEWORTHY ACTION.

We the undersigned merchants of East Portland agree to give up the trade in school books in favor of our afflicted fellow citizen Mr Wesley ... We take this opportunity to recommend this worthy citizen to the encouragement and patronage of our citizens and the farming community in general.

THE MISSION OF THE Y. M. C. A.

BY A. S. COATS.

The following was prepared to be delivered before the Young Men's Christian Association ... on the occasion of the anniversary meeting which was held at Taylor street church ... Mr Coats was unable to appear. We cheerfully comply with the request to print it.

The Young Men's Christian Association has ... [illegible] ... in the United States the ... institution ... few such ... will ... as you ... Central ... and ... awakening ... Even the islands ... institution.

... so widespread and firmly ... What is ... What Macedonian cry of human ... Cardinal ... this nineteenth century? In other words what is the mission of the Young Men's Christian Association ... In essaying an answer to this question I do ... designed to furnish young men a field ... Christian work. The church, the ... meeting, the Sabbath school and mission schools, temperance and charitable organizations supply a field wide enough and varied enough to employ all the talents and all the ... of Christian young men and there is no call for ... their organization to do this miscellaneous work.

In the second place the Y. M. C. A. is not designed especially for young men to engage in any kind of Christian work. There is nothing in its aim or in its genius to exclude old men or middle aged men and women or young women from exercising a guiding and moulding influence in its counsels and management.

In the third place the Y. M. C. A. is not designed as a pantheon in which Christians of all denominations may meet in friendly and Christian intercourse and worship ... in the bond of the common Saviour and a common hope. That might be a worthy, a beautiful object for an organization to propose to itself, but that is not the object this organization proposes to itself.

In the fourth place the Y. M. C. A. is not designed to help indigent young men or old men to a living, or to positions for gaining a living. This it may do incidentally, as indeed it may incidentally do the other things which I have just declared it is not designed to do, but this is not its great aim and object.

The mission of the Y. M. C. A. is to save unsaved young men. This, only this and nothing more. If an employment bureau will save young men or a library and reading room or a ... prayer meeting or a course of lectures, if a billiard or gaming room will help to save young men which I vastly doubt ... wisdom of old or middle aged men and the influence of old women and young women will help to save young men, then all these classes and all these agencies will be employed by the Y. M. C. A. in the accomplishment of its mission. But woe is the day when it mistakes the means it may use for the end for which it is designed, and forgets that its mission is to save unsaved young men.

But it may be asked, Why have an organization devoted especially to the welfare of young men when other classes are equally worthy and equally unsaved? For answer: Because of the peculiar evils which beset young men which they are peculiarly liable not to resist and which seem peculiarly beyond the reach of our other religious organizations.

It is but uttering a truism to say that we are living in a transition period. Old things are passing away and all things are becoming new. Old beliefs are being tried in the crucible of modern science. Every thing that bears the marks of antiquity is being questioned. The criticism of the nineteenth century is ...

Now, no class of people are so ... by this universal spirit as are our young men. They are left with nothing to anchor to. In former ages there was such a thing as a traditional faith and traditional customs to which a young man would cling till he had tried intelligently to mature a faith and a mode of life of his own. Practically there is no such thing to-day. Now the fact that father or mother thinks such and such a thing wrong is rather an indication that it is right, for are we not assured by the brilliant self satisfied superficial literature of the day that the faith of our fathers is long since obsolete? Now thus afloat as to the fundamental eternal distinction between good and evil and hardly believing that there are any such distinctions our young men are thrown into the turbulent air of our great cities. Pitfalls assail them at every corner, but pitfalls deeply concealed under the tempting guise of pleasure or profit. A little daring has made many young men rich out of other people's pockets. Why not me? A little dashing has given many men favor with the fair. Why not me? Mammon is king and Treasure is his hand maid. Such is the creed of this town. The wine that cools the blood in summer and warms it in winter, sparkles and beckons from numberless windows and harlotry with painted face and languid, enticing eyes invites to her bower from numberless lattices. Oh friend, can you say that all this betokens no peculiar danger to young men? Is there no need of combined effort in their behalf, of all God fearing soul-loving people?

I have no word of criticism to offer any Y. M. C. A. that may have kindly stretched out her hand to the rescue of other classes, or that may have attempted work which would seem properly to belong to other organizations. I would however entreat those who have a moulding influence in this organization that its original clear cut sharply defined glorious mission was to save young men. It is a great thing to go out upon the high sea and bring into port storm beaten weather-stained hulks which else would go to the bottom. But what if, while we are out there on our mission of mercy a score or a hundred of neatly trimmed barks push off upon the current all chartless and rudderless? Better repair the mischief before it is done. An ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure. If as an organization we fail to reach the young men who are in our schools and stores and work shops we shall surely fail of accomplishing our great mission.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

John Crain & Co have just received a very fine lot of spreads, napkins, ladies skirts etc. The special attention of the ladies is called to their advertisement.

Clarke & Henderson have a long list of special attractions which they very attractively display to the public in the advertising columns of this paper. HUNT'S REMEDY is not a new compound. It has been before the public 25 years, and extensively used by all classes, with and without the advice of Physicians. HUNT'S REMEDY has saved from a lingering disease and death hundreds of our citizens. HUNT'S REMEDY never fails to cure Dropsy and all Diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder and Urinary Organs.

IN THE WHOLE HISTORY OF MEDICINE no preparation has ever performed such marvelous cures or maintained so wide a reputation as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which is recognized as the world's remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs. Its long continued series of wonderful cures in all climates has made it universally known as a safe and reliable agent to employ. Against ordinary colds which are the forerunners of more serious disorders it acts speedily and surely, always relieving suffering and often saving life. The protection it affords, by its timely use in the throat and lung disorders of children, makes it an invaluable remedy to be kept always on hand in every home. No person can afford to be without it, and those who have once used it never will. From their knowledge of its composition and effects Physicians use the CHERRY PECTORAL in their practice and Clergymen recommend it. It is absolutely certain in its remedial effects and will always cure where cures are possible. For sale by all Dealers.

A Remarkable Result.

It makes no difference how many Physicians or how much medicine you have tried, it is now an established fact that German Syrup is the only remedy which has given complete satisfaction in severe cases of Lung Diseases. It is true there are yet thousands of persons who are predisposed to Throat and Lung Affections, Consumption, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Severe Colds settled on the Breast, Pneumonia, Whooping Cough, &c., who have no personal knowledge of Boschee's German Syrup. To such we would say that 50,000 dozen were sold last year without one complaint. Consumptives try just one bottle. Regular size 75 cts. Sold by all Druggists in America.

WORK FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

How the Chinese may be Ousted from the Cigar Trade

The question "What shall we do with our boys and girls?" has been solved for a small number by Aaron Meyer, who has established a cigar manufactory at the corner of Jackson and Montgomery streets in the room formerly occupied by the United States Land Office. The enterprise was started four weeks ago last Monday as an experiment with forty boys and girls of from fifteen to twenty years of age. None of the hands had ever worked at the trade before, but their progress has been most gratifying. No pay is given for the first thirty days, the instruction in the trade and the tobacco wasted by the unskilled workers being considered a fair offset. After the thirty days apprenticeship the hands are paid twenty five cents per hundred and the most skillful are able by that time to earn from fifty to seventy five cents per day. Some of the girls here already become experts and make from $1 to $1 50 a day, and the foreman says turn out as good work as Chinamen who have been at work for years. The room in which the work is done is large, lofty, well lighted and ventilated. Two tables which extend the length of the room are occupied by the hands. At the upper end of the tables are boys and girls engaged in bunching and placing the tobacco in moulds which are turned over to the foreman who gives a ticket for each mould and marks the name of the workman on the mould, so that any defective work can be turned back to them, which they have to replace with good work. At the other end of the tables are a few hands who have attained the greatest amount of skill who take the bunches as they come from the mould and put on the wrappers. Mr Meyer says that white labor is as cheap as Chinese and that the large manufacturers, if they would exercise the small amount of patience needed with beginners, would soon be convinced of the fact, if they would give it a fair trial. They could get all the hands they wanted, for since he began operations he has had to turn away from five to ten applicants every day, his facilities not being sufficient to employ more than he has just now at work. No applications are received from persons under fifteen years of age and the person applying must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. In Mr Meyer's opinion this experiment is the small end of the wedge which will eventually drive the Chinese out of the cigar trade, and give white boys and girls a chance to earn a living, instead of being left to run wild in our streets.—S. F. Morning Call.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—Flour—Dull, extra, $6 ½@6¾; jobbing best, $6¾.

Wheat—Market lower; shipping, $2@2 02½, milling, $2 05@2 10.

Corn—Light stock and prices firm; large yellow, scarce at $1 65@1 70; white, $2.

Barley—Dull; feed, $1 15@1 22½.

Oats—Dull; feed, $1 30@1 40.

Hay—Quiet; choice wheat, $17; oats and barley $10@12½.

Potatoes—Firm; Oregon $2 65@2 70; California, $2 50@3.

Wool—Firm; common 10@15; good 18@22c ℔ ℔.

Liverpool Markets.

LIVERPOOL, April 12.—A leading grain circular says: British wheat has been dull this week, but there was no general decline, though some samples were six pence to one shilling per quarter cheaper. A moderate inquiry continues for off coast, and on the whole this branch of trade is steady. But little has been done for the continent. The French market declined somewhat for wheat and flour. Spot and neighboring districts have ruled quiet and prices barely maintained. At this market to-day there was only a moderate business in wheat, there being few buyers in attendance and sellers holding steadily to Tuesday's prices for flour. Very little was doing in corn; choice very scarce and rather dearer; inferior qualities were slow.

New York Markets.

NEW YORK, April 12.—Markets quiet. Flour, weak, dull and 10@15c lower to sell. Wheat dull and 1c lower to sell. Wool shows no signs of active demand; 7,000 pounds fall California, 14@16c; 10,000 pounds spring, 22c.

Philadelphia Wool Market.

PHILADELPHIA, April 12.—Wool quiet, but without change. The supply is rather light, but ample for all demands.

Shipping Intelligence.

The ship Springfield from this port for Queenstown was spoken on February 4th, lat. 32 S. lon. 30 W.

The Geo. W. Elder will sail for San Francisco at 5 o'clock to-morrow (Saturday) morning.

The British bark Barracouta came in over the bar Wednesday and is now in port.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN!

His Wonderful Success

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

Chronic and Acute Diseases,

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS

public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female. He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease, in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease, mentally and physically, he has restored them to health and happiness, for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness.

has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases: Catarrh, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat and chest, by an entirely new system only known to himself, Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs, including Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood. In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success, not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States. Diseases of the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of, and never fails to give relief at once, and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time.

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints, and understands their delicate and refined organization, as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health.

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE

over most physicians—he can tell the patients' disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual. This accounts in part for his great professional success.

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand, and the patient need not fear the result.

will send to those living at a distance and who cannot well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally, and will forward the proper medicines, or instruments, to any part of the country with full instructions and advice. Each letter requiring advice or list of questions must contain two postage stamps.

Everything strictly confidential and honorable.

THE DOCTOR

has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify.

CAUTION.

Persons coming to Portland, requiring medical treatment of the proper kind, who desire to consult with me, will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so-called Doctors, through pretended friendship for the patients. Look out for them; they are knaves, prompted by selfish motives and what they can make. Be sure and ask for DR. PAUL M. BRENAN, the Medical Lecturer, and read his sign on his door, Room No. 7, Corbett's Block, over O'Connor's Store, corner of Front and Washington streets.
